

Council To Take New Look At 'White Way' After Protest From Businessmen Monday

Borough council Monday evening decided to take a new look at proposals to improve the "White Way" in the center of town with the possibility that "something may be found that will be both decorative and efficient."

Council decided to hold a meeting of the Utility Committee of council with Metropolitan Edison engineers and a committee from the Travel Council, Retail Merchants and Chamber of Commerce.

The action came after the reading of a statement opposing the proposed mercury vapor street lighting system which council had voted last week to have installed this summer. Signing the statement were the directors of the Travel Council and Retail Merchants.

Contract Not Yet Signed

Council President H. M. Oyler said that while the town had passed an ordinance calling for installation of the mercury-vapor lighting system on the first blocks radiating from Lincoln Square "the contract has not yet been signed."

In the statement read by Walter B. Lane, president of Travel Council, both the travel group and the merchants praised council for "its desire to promote the interests of the business community," and praised Metropolitan Edison engineers for "the efficient and powerful lighting system they propose," but at the same time the statement asked council to consider whether "Gettysburg, as a tourist center and as a historical shrine, might lose much by a lighting system that would be ideal for any other community in the nation."

"The tourist coming to Gettysburg expects to see a 19th century village and we must maintain that illusion for him," Lane said. "In the interior everything can be modern, but on the outside our town must appear somewhat as it was in Civil War days. We feel that a too modern lighting system would ruin any illusion. As a photographer I know what light can do to create moods."

Discuss Town Changes

Lane urged council to consider some lighting system "that will help bring people off the bypass that council has asked for. We feel that when people come off the bypass to see the battlefield, that is all they will visit, if there is nothing unusual about the town. They can see a modern town anywhere, they don't have to come to Gettysburg to see one. We must be different to attract tourists."

ROTARY TOLD OF LINCOLN TIES TO TOWN

A son of Abraham Lincoln, Robert Lincoln, received a part of his education at a college whose faculty was made up entirely of graduates of Gettysburg College and Seminary, Frederick S. Weiser, a student at the local seminary, told the Rotary Club at its meeting Monday evening in the YWCA.

Lincoln also served briefly as a trustee of the college in Springfield, before being called to Washington by his election as President, Weiser said.

Observing that "Gettysburg had its influence on Lincoln," the seminary student added that the Illinois university, founded and taught by four Gettysburg College and Seminary graduates, also taught John Hay who later became Lincoln's private secretary.

Not Well Received

Speaking of the Gettysburg Address, Weiser observed, "The address was not well received. At first the majority vote was negative. Even here, two of the local newspapers only presented the President's address. Only one, the Star and Banner of which John C. McIlhenny was editor, seemed to show an awareness of the importance of the Gettysburg Address, noting in an editorial that the president had (Continued On Page 2)

EISENHOWER SCHOOL WON'T BE READY APR. 1

The 17 Gettysburg Joint School District directors who were able to get to the February meeting of the board Monday evening at the high school building learned that the new Eisenhower Elementary School building will not be finished by the scheduled April 1 but it may be mid-May before the building is finished.

No business was transacted at the meeting which lacked a quorum and adjourned after 45 minutes until next Monday evening at 7 o'clock. The meeting did not convene until after 8:30 p.m. when it became apparent that a quorum was not going to report.

In answer to questions from directors, Superintendent of Schools H. Edgar Riegle said that, at the last job conference on the site of the new building last week, contractors admitted they were not going to be able to meet the April 1 deadline. Weather has been chiefly to blame for the delay in completing the building which was started about a year ago.

See New Calendar

It is scheduled to go into use in September.

The directors went over a three-page report from Superintendent Riegle and looked at a proposed calendar for the 1959-1960 school year that will open the schools on Monday, August 31, the earliest opening date here in years. Labor Day will be the year's first holiday.

None of the recommendations in the superintendent's report could be acted upon. Majorities of only three boards were present. Strahan had all its directors there, four of Gettysburg's seven were present; there were three from Mt. Joy, two each from Highland and Cumberland and one from Franklin Twp.

Recommend Burkholder

Among the Riegle recommendations was one made by the teacher committee that Paul Burkholder, (Continued On Page 9)

BERMUDIAN JOINT BOARD SETS BUDGET

An operating budget of $356,575, about $26,000 higher than that for the current year, was approved tentatively Monday night by the Bermudian Springs Joint School Board which met in the school at York Springs. Final adoption is scheduled for the board's March meeting.

The board approved preliminary plans for the East Berlin elementary school addition, elected two new teachers and endorsed a number of recommendations of its personnel committee.

A report from the Department of Labor and Industry was presented with recommendations for several changes in the York Springs elementary building in the interest of fire safety and the board decided that it will ask an extension of time for compliance. It authorized its architect, Buchart Associates, York, to prepare plans for the recommended work. Included in the Labor and Industry requirements are construction of a boiler room to house the heating plant in the school basement and installation of a fire alarm system. The latter had already been ordered by the board and delivery is expected momentarily, it was reported.

To Join Faculty

Mrs. Marilyn Wadel, York Springs, who will be graduated from Shippensburg State Teachers College in the spring, was engaged to teach in the East Berlin elementary school, and Mrs. Phyllis Heffner, Dillsburg, a graduate of Findlay (Ohio) College, was engaged to teach health and physical education, also at East Berlin. Each will receive a starting annual salary of $3,800.

George Anderson, chairman of the personnel committee, reported on its study of the teacher welfare committee recommendation. (Continued On Page 9)

17 Lose Lives When Tornado Slashes Through St. Louis

ST. LOUIS (AP) — A tornado cut a deadly path across the heart of St. Louis in the pre-dawn today. Seventeen were known dead and 320 were injured. City Hospital reported it had 13 of the dead. Gomer G. Phillips Hospital reported four of the dead were there. Of the injured, 43 were serious enough to be hospitalized.

Numerous other persons were trapped in homes and apartments which buckled under the storm's blows.

"God knows how many people are trapped in those buildings," said Dep. Fire Chief James Sauerwin who feared the death toll would mount.

Hit Tenement Area

The St. Louis Office of Civil Defense went into action.

Brig. Gen. Francis P. Hardway, head of the civil defense, said his agency was trying to coordinate the rescue work.

Part of the hardest hit sector was an area of tenement homes occupied chiefly by Negroes.

Debris was piled two feet deep in the section hardest hit. The area was only a mile west of downtown St. Louis, itself lashed by heavy wind and rain.

The storm struck at 2:30 a.m. It had first bounced down in western St. Louis County, hitting suburban Kirkwood and Brentwood. Then it swung in an easterly direction across Forest Park in St. Louis, dipping into the residential area.

Terrific Silence

William McAllister was just leaving a gasoline station in the area when the storm struck.

"There was a terrific glow of light as if a cloud was illuminated and there was the sound like the roar of a tremendous automobile racing its engine," McAllister said.

"Within two minutes the sound of the storm had passed and there was a terrific silence."

The area was utter confusion. One policeman reported six bodies had been carried from a leveled four-family apartment at 2735 Bacon Street, two blocks from Busch Stadium where the St. Louis Cardinals play. The ball park was not damaged.

Police said persons were trapped in at least three smashed homes or apartments.

Some 14 persons were reported trapped in a three-story brick and frame building at Delmar and Whittier, in the direct path of the storm.

Two hours later rescue workers began reaching the bodies. Fires broke out by the score.

Get Bargain In New School Here

The Gettysburg Joint School District seems to be getting a bargain in its new Eisenhower Elementary school building.

One section of Supt. H. Edgar Riegle's monthly report to local school directors Monday evening said:

"The December issue of the Department of Public Instruction Newsletter carried a list of 19 elementary schools for which bids were received in 1958. Our Eisenhower school had next to the lowest cost per pupil of those listed. The cost per pupil for all of the 19 was less than $1,100. The cost per pupil given for Eisenhower school was $815."

A check on the newsletter tabulation showed a Weigeltown school was lowest at $732. The new Coneago Township school at Midway ranked 16th in the list with a per pupil cost of $931. Leading the list was a Juniata County school at $1,085 per pupil. Nine schools on the list cost over $1,000 per pupil.

Asks Funds To Finance Two Local Events

Senator Douglas Elliott, representing the Adams-Franklin senatorial district in the state senate, today introduced an act in the Senate calling for the appropriation of $25,000 for expenses of the state commission preparing to observe the 100th anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg and the 100th anniversary of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address. The act is co-sponsored by Senator Charles Weiner, of Philadelphia, minority floor leader in the Senate.

The act provides that the $25,000, "or as much thereof as may be needed," is made available to the commission for expenses to carry out the provisions of the measure passed April 20, 1956, providing for the appointment of the commission to properly observe the two events.

Senator Elliott, an enthusiastic supporter of the plan to commemorate the battle anniversary and Lincoln's Gettysburg Address, said he felt confident the measure will pass without opposition.

Asks More Taxes

Council President H. M. Oyler said, "If we are lucky the budget will hold, but can we bank on no unusual amounts needed? What if there are many snows, or if a lot of fire hose bursts, or if other unexpected things crop up? We need additional taxation badly."

He asked each councilman to consider ideas for additional taxes. "Other towns tax a lot of things we don't. How about pinball machines, or other means of taxation? I want you to think about other taxes by next month."

Council Defers Enforcement Of Double Parking For Ten Days; Hear Many Protests

Gettysburg borough council Monday evening agreed to postpone enforcement of its double parking ordinance for ten days in order to give a committee further time to study the situation.

Forty businessmen attended the session in the engine house, the majority of them present to protest the double parking ordinance, enforcement of which was to have started this morning.

George W. Miller, chairman of the Retail Merchants Association, read a resolution adopted by the association last Friday holding that strict enforcement of the double parking ordinance would "be disastrous," and "would work a hardship on the merchants."

The resolution asked that enforcement be "administered with clemency." The statement assured council that the merchants desire to work closely with council in solving traffic problems.

Delay Mail Delivery

Charles Jacobs, of Jacobs Brothers Store, said: "You can't park double and you can't park in alleys. How can the tradesman deliver merchandise?"

Postmaster Jacob Appler said the mailmen "will abide by the law at all time" but that prohibiting mail delivery trucks from double parking from time to time will slow down delivery of the mail. "Our motto is to deliver to-day's mail today, but if the double parking is enforced it may be that we will be so slowed down that it will be a case of delivering today's mail tomorrow."

William Plank, local electrician, said, "Much of my work is with refrigeration and is of an emergency nature. The equipment is so heavy and bulky to carry a block or two. If it is impossible to double park, emergency service will be hampered considerably."

Oyler Agrees

LeRoy Smith and others filed protests.

TOWN TAX RATE UP 3 MILLS; ADOPT BUDGET

Gettysburg borough council, meeting at the engine house Monday evening, tentatively adopted a $140,000 budget for 1959 and set the tax rate at 16 mills.

The budget is an increase of $13,000 over 1958. The tax rate is an increase of three mills over last year.

Finance Chairman Mahlon P. Hartzell Sr. explained that the 16-mill rate "will net approximately $130,000," which includes the approximately $81,000 that will come from the millage on real estate and occupations, the approximately $27,000 from parking meters and funds from all other sources.

He declared that with "very cautious spending" the town could "get by" by spending less than the $130,000. He said that in 1958 there had been about $10,000 in expenditures, including the purchase of land on E. Middle St. for approximately $5,800, which would not occur this year.

Rebert Disagrees

Other councilmen were not so optimistic. Highway chairman C. Donald Rebert said, "If we stick by this $140,000 budget for highways, what are we going to do when the money runs out. Admittedly we won't have some expenses we had last year, but we will have to reconstruct the bridge on Fourth St. to provide a place for the youngsters to walk when they go to the Eisenhower school which will open in the fall. And curbing should be put in along the street to give the youngsters a place to walk, and that will mean building Fourth St. to the curb. In addition there are several new streets that will likely be ready for construction this year. If we are to stay within our budget those people will have to stay in the mud. On top of that we had about $5,000 additional income last year because the state check for 1957 was late arriving, and thus helped out in 1958. We won't have that amount this year."

Scharf Says Town Should Decide Stake In Its Future

"We in Gettysburg must decide sooner or later whether we want to preserve and enhance what we have here or whether we want to diminish what has made Gettysburg one of the most famous towns in the world," Henry M. Scharf, manager of Hotel Gettysburg and a member of the Pennsylvania advisory committee to the Civil War Centennial Commission, told the Kiwanis Club at its meeting Monday evening in Banker's Restaurant.

Following an explanation of the purposes of observing the centennial of the struggle of 1861 to 1865, which he described as "the fire that forged a young name into a greater one," the speaker said there never was a time when the lessons of the past were so important in charting the future.

"The military history has been written but the forces that brought on the conflict and the effect that tremendous effort had on the nation . . . the part it played in bringing America and a united American people to the very pinnacle of the world is still worthy of close study. The themes of the Civil War conferences at Gettysburg College which attract the participation of our greatest historians and scholars clearly prove here is much to be learned and much to be understood," Scharf said.

"Lincoln Association"

He stressed the association of Gettysburg with Lincoln which he said was closer than any other city with the exception of the nation's capital. In this connection he described it as a "civic responsibility that Gettysburg play its full part in observing the Sesquicentennial Year of Lincoln's birth on February 12 at the luncheon sponsored by the Lincoln Fellowship.

Countian Given 90 Day Jail Sentence

A 23-year-old Adams County man was committed to the York County jail for 90 days Monday on his guilty pleas to charges of burglary and driving while his license was suspended.

The defendant, Harry J. Mumert, who served seven months in the Maryland House of Correction for a burglary in that state, was implicated with others in a $5 burglary at Wildasin's garage, Hanover, and in the stealing of gasoline from parked trucks of Leinhardt Furniture Co. and Harry Bollinger, Hanover.

Mumert, who lives at Hanover R. 5, said he had been drinking at the time and had told his companions he "wanted nothing to do" with the Wildasin garage burglary. He said he left before the crime was finally carried through. He asked for leniency.

Since he was involved in more than one case, Judge Walter I. Anderson said the court could not overlook what had happened, but would be lenient.

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Two jewel robbers adding up to a total haul of nearly a million dollars kept police busy seeking clues today.

Latest was Monday's holdup of the Al Levinson Co., a downtown jewelry importing firm which reported gems valued at $500,000 retail were taken.

A man posing as a customer entered the office but aroused no suspicion until an armed confederate came in and ordered workers and a visitor to lie down.

Levinson said the stolen jewels were insured for 70 or 80 per cent of their value. Several thousand dollars in cash also was taken.

Police would not speculate on the possibility of a connection between the Levinson robbery and the theft Sunday from a hotel suite of $400,000 worth of jewels belonging to Leon C. Greenbaum, board chairman of the Hertz Car Rental Corp.

Four Cubs, Neal Leister, Francis A. Redding, Paul A. Schwartz and William Staley, received their Webelos awards and were graduated into Scouting. James P. Hahn, Webelos den chief, presented the awards and John R. Rudisill, assistant Scoutmaster, welcomed the graduates into the Scout troop.

W. E. Tilberg, Gettysburg, of the York-Adams Council, was principal speaker. He congratulated the parents who had turned out despite the weather. He estimated that few who were supposed to be present did not come. "That's what we do for boys," he said, emphasizing the importance of work in Scouting and similar work for girls in building the moral strength of the nation.

Tilberg also spoke of the pleasure that adults can derive from working with boys, relating several incidents, including the comment of one new den mother whom he quoted as saying, "Until the Cub Scouts began meeting in our house, I never realized how much noise boys could make learning to be trustworthy, loyal, helpful, friendly, courteous, kind, obedient, cheerful, thrifty, brave, clean and reverent."

Oath Parents' Guide

The speaker emphasized the third part of the Scout oath as a guide to parents. The boy, he said, promises "to keep myself physically strong, mentally awake and morally straight."

Of the first point, Tilberg said, "If we are going to take our share of the load, there must be physical fitness"; of the second, "The mind is important for every boy and girl who is going to become a self-sustaining citizen"; but of the moral, "You can construct the finest physical body and if you do not have character, you'll become a dangerous brute; you can develop a fine mind and if you do not have character, you'll become a clever crook."

The problem for the parents, Tilberg said, is "how to create in the minds of these boys and girls the desire to do right — not just to make them do right."

Accept New Cubs

These new Bobcats were accepted into the pack: Eugene Bittle, John Bowman, Robert Collins, Larry Cornett, Bruce Hoffman, Larry Hull, Robert Ritter, Steven Snyder and Gary Wolfe.

Prior to the covered dish supper, the flag salute was lead by Boy Scout Charles Hahn and the Rev. William C. Karns, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church, gave the invocation. Ice cream and orange drink were provided by the pack.

Beaven F. Hanlon, of the pack committee and former assistant Cubmaster, was master of ceremonies, substituting for Cubmaster Stewart N. Long, absent because of a death in his family. Among those introduced by Hanlon were Robert Myers, chairman, Ralph R. Ruggles and Lewis H. Fox, of the pack committee, and Mrs. Richard Hartlaub, pack secretary. The master of ceremonies appealed to mothers of Cub Scouts to volunteer their services as den mothers, several more being needed. "If we don't get more den mothers, we're not going to be able to take more boys," Hanlon said. "I'd hate to see the time in Littlestown when we can't take all the boys who want to become Cubs."

District Commissioner Charles E. Ritter, of the Black Walnut District, spoke briefly and presented an honor plaque "For God and Country," which the pack earned for having attained the goals set up by the organization. The plaque was accepted by Hanlon.

Two Vignettes
Are Published

Miss Sandra Wilson, a sophomore at Gettysburg College and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor E. Wilson, San Diego, Calif., has had "two vignettes" published in the February "Luther Life," monthly national youth magazine of the Luther League of America.

Miss Wilson, an English major, graduated from Mission Bay High School, San Diego.

She is a college dormitory counselor, is active in women's sports and is a member of the Delta Gamma sorority. She was a freshman Women's Student Government representative.

Her articles are entitled "Loser Twice (attitudes that assure the cleric's applause)."

The first expresses both joys and the heartaches of finding God in one's neighbors and surroundings. The second tells of the "Unknown Disciple" of today, "caught between the ways of the world and the ways of God. Both exemplify the human tendency to put off attempts at perfect righteousness until another day."

ENTER-PHOBIA. This new ailment besets you when you try to get into other '59 cars. Do you back in? Crawl in? Fall in? It's hard to tell which. But Mercury has the right remedy: door openings are 6 inches wider. There's up to 2 inches more head clearance. You step in easily...without a twinge.

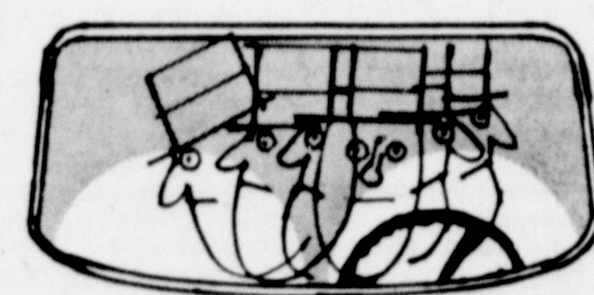

BACK-SEAT BOUNCE. The only cushioning many '59 cars could squeeze in over their high floor hump is a layer of spring and a jute pad. But Mercury's lowered hump made space for full cushioning.

STORMY-WEATHER TWITCH. Wipers in other cars do not clear the center of the windshield, so you have to peek through 2 fan-shaped sections. But Mercury's wipers have an overlapping pattern—clear a five-foot swath—including the center. You drive relaxed in all kinds of weather.

CLOSE-TOGETHERNESS. Other '59 cars make friendships too close. But Mercury moved the dashboard forward for 9" more knee room. There's more leg room, more elbow room—more usable room all around.

MIDDLE-MAN CROUCH. That hump in the floor of other '59 cars is now larger than ever. It makes the man in the middle sit with his knees at his chin. But Mercury cut the hump in half! Now the middle man has room to stretch out.

Waynesboro Junior High Here Tonight; Warriors Travel; Countians Busy

Tonight the Gettysburg Junior High varsity dribblers will attempt to break into the win column for the first time and at the same time snap a seven-game losing skid when they engage Waynesboro in a South Penn Junior High League game on the local floor.

Waynesboro, currently tied for second place with Chambersburg via 4-2 records, defeated the Braves 49-32 at Waynesboro on January 6.

The local jayvees will be out to repeat a 24-16 victory in the preliminary game which will start at 6:30.

Gettysburg Senior High clashes with the Waynesboro Indians on the latter's court tonight.

Waynesboro, runnerup to Carlisle in the first half race, is out of the second half picture as the result of dropping all of its three league games. The Indians, who whipped the Warriors here 70-51 on January 6, will be doubly tough on their home floor. In Mike Crist and Tuck Shade they have two of the best scorers in the South Penn circuit.

Other league games on tap tonight include Chambersburg at Shippensburg, Hershey at Carlisle, and Mechanicsburg at Hanover.

Intra-Division Games
Action in the Adams-Franklin League resumes on an intra-division basis this evening following the completion of the inter-division round of games.

In the Adams Division league-leading Biglerville hosts fifth-place Big Springs, second-place Bermsburg invades third-place New Oxford, while fourth-place Littlestown invades Fairfield, sixth-place outfit.

Games in the Franklin Division include Fannett-Metal at Scotland, Buchanan at Greencastle, and Quincy at St. Thomas.

Delone Catholic, 6-11, opens its second half schedule in the Central Pennsylvania Catholic League tonight by meeting St. Edwards of Shamokin at McSherrystown. The Squires lead at Shamokin in the first half 61-53.

The game was originally scheduled for Monday but was set back until tonight due to road conditions.

HAWKS NEAR THIRD TITLE; FACE PISTONS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The St. Louis Hawks could do their highest flying of the season tonight if they can beat the Detroit Pistons in Detroit. All Coach Ed Macauley's crew needs is one more victory to clinch their third straight Western Division title in the National Basketball Assn.

They could back into it if the Cincinnati Royals clip the second-place Minneapolis Lakers. A Lak-er defeat is as good as a victory for the Hawks.

St. Louis had to scratch Monday night to defeat the Syracuse Nat 99-94 in the first game of a doubleheader in Philadelphia. The Warriors knocked off Eastern Division leading Boston 121-113 in the nightcap.

Honors For Cousy
Minneapolis downed the New York Knicks, 128-122 and Detroit returned to Ft. Wayne, Ind., its former home, and knocked over the Cincinnati Royals, 122-97.

Bob Pettit was the coldest of the Hawks, going scoreless for the first 16½ minutes before he broke loose for 26 points to bring the Hawks home. Dolph Schayes and Larry Costello each had 16 points to lead Syracuse.

Elgin Baylor tossed in 31 points to lead Minneapolis. Willie Naulls scored 27 points for New York.

Philly's victory broke a three-game Boston winning string. Paul Arizin led the Warriors with 25 points while Bob Cousy took game honors with 32 points.

Detroit got its eight victory in 10 games. Jack Twyman threw in 30 points for Cincy and Phil Jordan topped Detroit with 20.

KENTUCKY IS UPSET 66-58 BY MISS. STATE

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Kentucky's tournament picture was hidden behind a cloud of uncertainty today following a stunning reversal by Mississippi State on a night of basketball upsets that also saw Marquette's 15-game winning streak go by the boards and unexpected developments in the Big 10.

Kentucky, the defending NCAA champion and top-ranked in the Associated Press poll, succumbed to Mississippi State 66-58. The setback, the Wildcats' second in 20 games, dropped them into third place in the Southeastern Conference.

Monday night's result gave Mississippi State an 8-1 SEC record to 8-2 for Kentucky Auburn, which beat Florida 93-71, heads the conference with 10-0.

May Finish Third
However, because Auburn is on NCAA probation and a state law in Mississippi prohibits competition against teams having Negro players, Kentucky may find itself in the unique position next month of representing the conference in the NCAA tourney despite a third-place finish.

Marquette was the victim of a second half uprising by DePaul. Trailing 47-44 at the intermission, DePaul broke open the game after Jim Fleming put it ahead 69-67. The 89-80 setback was the second in 19 games for Marquette. De Paul is 9-5.

Indiana blew a golden opportunity to deadlock the Michigan State for the Big 10 lead. The Hoosiers raced to a 17-0 lead over Illinois, but the fighting Illini roared back with a 55 point second half to win 89-83. Indiana now trails Michigan State by one game. Illinois' league mark is 4-5.

Wisconsin won its first Big 10 game and snapped a nine-game losing streak by turning back Purdue 91-86.

Auburn extended its unbeaten streak to 28 games—17 this season—with a 61-7 field goal percentage. Florida was no match for the Tigers, who pulled ahead 8-7 on Jim Flibbe's layup and remained in front.

Last minute free throws played an important part in other Southeastern Conference games. Two by Dave Denton enabled Georgia Tech to nip LSU 64-63, four by Lenny Japlan gave Alabama a 71-65 triumph over Georgia, two by Jim Henry in the final 15 seconds pushed Vanderbilt to a 64-62 success over Tulane and Tennessee's overall superiority at the free throw line nudged it to a 85-82 victory over Mississippi.

In the Southern Conference, VMI surged from seven points behind in the closing moments and beat Davidson 64-60, and Furman edged William and Mary 71-70.

Other Results
Elsewhere, Ray Lewis dropped in six straight free throws near the end as Oklahoma defeated Nebraska 64-58 in the Big Eight; Dale Ball scored 29 points to lead Rice to a 68-62 triumph over Arkansas in the Southwest Conference; North Texas State hit 50 percent from the field to whip Houston 62-56 in the Missouri Valley and Notre Dame, with co-captains Tom Hawkins and Gene Duffy combining for 47 points, trounced Army 76-60.

Oregon rallied in the second half and defeated Washington State 61-54 in the Pacific Coast conference and Seattle overwhelmed Xavier of Ohio 88-69.

Parker Takes Rigney's Place
SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Hospitalized Bill Rigney temporarily turns over the management of the San Francisco Giants today to Coach Sal Packer.

Packer is to serve until Rigney is well enough to go to Phoenix, Ariz., for spring training.

Vice President Charles S. (Chub) Feeney said no manager will be needed for the first several weeks, but that Rigney designated Parker as No. 1 man.

Rigney and his wife, Paula, were injured early Sunday when their car crashed into a power pole in nearby Berkeley. He suffered a broken jaw and his wife a broken hip.

Their condition was reported improved and good at Kaiser Hospital in suburban Walnut Creek.

TITLE BOUT IN MAY
LOS ANGELES (AP)—Now that it's official, matchmaker George Parnassus says World Bantamweight Champion Alphonse Halimi will meet Mexico's Jose Becerra in a title fight here about the first of May.

Halimi's manager, Philippe Filippi, announced Monday in Paris that he has accepted an offer by Parnassus, who staged the Halimi-Raul (Mighty Mouse) Macias title scrap in Los Angeles in 1937.

Neither the Halimi camp nor Parnassus disclosed terms.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Boxing promoter Bill Rosenzohn likes New York in June.

But he admits he'd change his tune for Los Angeles' Memorial Coliseum bubbling over with paying customers for the heavyweight title fight between Champion Floyd Patterson and Sweden's Ingemar Johansson.

Walt Showers, 103-pound wrestler for Biglerville High School, will be in the lineup when the Cannons meet York in their final home match of the season Thursday evening. Showers, a sophomore, has won five bouts, lost two, and tied another.

ANDRADE HOPES HIS RING LUCK WILL REVERSE

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Everything happens to Cisco Andrade except good luck.

Twice the lightweight from Compton, Calif., thought he had fought his way to a shot at the title. Twice it was denied him. Twice he has been sidelined by discouraging ailments that were enough to make him think of quitting the ring. Each time he hung on.

When he boxes, Frankie Ryff of New York in a Friday bout at Madison Square Garden he hopes he finally will get a real break.

Beat Zulueta

The last time Andrade was in New York—in 1935—he whipped Orlando Zulueta, the clever Cuban. That was supposed to lead to a championship match. Instead, it was Zulueta who got the chance two years later. When he beat ex-champ Jimmy Carter at Chicago in 1936, the Cisco Kid thought he was going to land a fight with the new titleholder, Wallace (Bud) Smith. Instead, Joe Brown got the chance and the title, Joey still has it.

Andrade's sharpest pains, however, have been physical. In 1936, his left elbow pained him. He went to a San Francisco specialist who removed bone chips.

Beat Ex-champ
After a layoff of almost a year, Andrade won a decision over Bill Evans in Las Vegas. After the bout his hands hurt, but he took another match and stopped Bud Smith, by then a former champ.

Another visit to the San Francisco doctor showed that he had suffered fractures in the Evans bout and had stopped Smith with two broken hands.

Andrade stopped Jorge Mascia late in 1937 and then scored TKOs over Bobby Bell and Luro Salas before losing to Johnny Gonsalves in Oakland, Calif., last September. He hasn't fought since due to a combination of injuries to opponents, a broken nose, and a bout with the flu.

"Maybe I'll get a break now," he said. "I still hope to get that shot at the title."

The Ryff match falls on Friday—the 13th.

SEES BETTER BALANCE THIS YEAR FOR A'S

By HARRY CRAFT
Kansas City Athletics

THROCKMORTON, Tex. (AP)—This is the time of the year when every manager is optimistic and I am no exception. I don't mean to imply we're going to be pennant contenders but we should have a sounder, more balanced club.

I thought our biggest weaknesses last year were lack of infield replacements and not enough front-line pitching. Second base is the position we thought would present our biggest problem. Our first draft choice was second baseman Wayne Terwilliger. If he can break in as a regular we will be a much sounder ball club.

In that case, Hector Lopez will move back to third base. Hal Smith did a fine job for us at third and was adequate at first. He wasn't getting enough regular work by splitting the catching duties with Harry Chitt and Frank House.

Gain In Experience
I think we will be stronger in 1939 through the experiences gained by players like Roger Maris, Chitt, Ralph Terry, Mike Baxes, Ray Herbert, Dick Tomaneck and Bob Martyn. Jim Small, Lou Klimechek, Kent Hadley, Jim McManus and Milt Graff have improved. I'm told that Zeke Bella swings a good bat and likes to play.

Our pitching should be much better. Terry is improving from year to year. Herbert was excellent the last two months of the season. Ned Garver is sound physically and a healthy Garver will beat some people. Bob Grim will be in the starting rotation from the beginning. Jack Urban is a battler and if he recovers from his injury of last year, he'll give a good account of himself.

Howard Reed, Ken Johnson and John Tisoutis are youngsters who will be given every opportunity to pitch for us. Reed looked good when he joined us last September. Walt Craddock and Bob Davis should be better pitchers in 1939. Bud Daley, Tomaneck and Tom Gorman will draw spot starting and relief assignments.

In Right Direction
Our goal still is to make ourselves a strong first-division contender. Because we finished 4½ games out of the first division in '38, makes us believe we're headed in the right direction.

To me, it looks like Detroit and Cleveland have helped themselves through winter trades and should be strong contenders. Chicago will be tough with its pitching and down - the - middle strength. The Yankees are champions until beaten, and are again sound in all departments.

Next — Bill Rigney, San Francisco Giants.

NEW YORK (AP)—Rochester's Billy Hicke has opened a wide gap over the field in his bid to become the first rookie to win the American Hockey League scoring title.

Hicke picked up eight points last week raising his league-leading total to 74 on 30 goals and 44 assists. He scored five goals while notching his second hat trick of the season.

The young Amerk right wing boosted his lead over second-place Ken Schinkel of Springfield to 11 points, league statistics released today show. Schinkel, the leader in goals scored with 33, has added 30 assists for 63 points.

HARRISBURG (AP)—Delaware County's unusual place in the hearts of the service academies was noted by the House Monday night.

It approved a resolution extending its congratulations to three county residents holding places of prestige with the Navy, Army and Air Force football teams.

Cadet William Carpenter of Springfield Twp. will captain the 1939 Army Team. Midshipman James Dunn of Radledge will captain the Navy team. And Prospect Park's Ben Martin is coach of the Air Force squad.

MORE WORKERS IN SCOUT DRIVE

Additional committees conducting the drive for funds during the annual finance campaign of the Black Walnut Boy Scout District were announced today.

Harold Ecker, canvass chairman of the drive to raise $5,500 for Boy Scouting in the Black Walnut District outside Gettysburg, announced that Robert Storm will serve as chairman for the Bonneauville solicitation and Glenn Musselman Jr. will be chairman for the Cashtown area drive.

Solicitors serving under Chairman Storm in the Bonneauville section were listed as Richard Weaver, Clement Hawn, Leroy Shambrook, Alfred Smith, Francis Clabaugh, Norman Weaver, John Legore, Edward Smith, Leroy Little, Raymond Small, Eugene Weishaar, Raymond Weishaar, Francis Shambrook, Richard Rand, Gerald Pfaff, Timothy Farrell, Francis Neiderer, Richard Neiderer and Vincent Orndorff.

Canvassers in the Cashtown area under Chairman Musselman include Hammond Geyer, Joseph Sharrah, Robert Carbaugh and Charles Kuhn.

The campaign for funds is being held this week during observance of Boy Scout Week. Gettysburg is not included in the solicitation because it raises its funds for Boy Scouting through Community Chest.

LIONS HEAR

Russia did in Hungary had thrown back that trend and brought a "deep, new crisis" between Russia and Yugoslavia. Events in Hungary provoked a "reaction backwards in the whole field of international politics," he said and added that many others besides the Hungarians were the losers in that episode.

His country is making all efforts to improve relations with Russia but with little hope "that we'll get very far," the ambassador said.

Doesn't Believe in War

The ambassador opened his talk with general information about his country, traced its modern history from 1804 when Serbian peasants started an independence movement by throwing out the Turks.

Union came in 1918, he said, but little economic progress was made

TOWN TAX RATE

Guise and Harold Ecker as a committee to report on new methods of taxation.

The possibility of a revision of the borough's building permit law was considered. In response to questioning Burgess Plank said that the minimum for a building permit is $1, and the maximum $25. In other communities, he said, the building permits are between the two world wars.

He said his country feels war cannot solve problems but would only create new ones. "War seems practically impossible. On both sides we realize the ability to strike a strong blow but we do not know whether either can stand such a blow," he continued. His Country is devoted to "trying to organize peace," he continued.

Yugoslavia's neutral position does not prevent its being friendly with the West, especially the United States, he said, and recalled that this country had helped Yugoslavia.

Toured Battlefield

Social development in any country can be only the result of its own development and should not come by the use of force or interference from outside, he said. On this point his country differs with Russia, he said.

The ambassador, who had made a battlefield tour Monday afternoon, was introduced by Attorney Donald M. Scope, a member of the club. President John C. Stahle presented the speaker with a copy of "The High Tide at Gettysburg."

President Stahle reported the local club is currently leading in the regional Lions contest and plans were made for a group of Lions to go to the Fairfield club meeting next week.

Plans for a trip to Hershey to see an ice hockey game were announced for Wednesday March 4.

Lawrence Moves To Bar Dishonesty

HARRISBURG (AP) — An expanded investigation division was organized in the Justice Department Monday to back Gov. Lawrence's pledge of an honest and efficient administration.

Lawrence Saturday realigned the division under the overall direction of Victor H. Wright, a former deputy attorney general, in a move to ensure "not a trace of dishonesty in the conduct of public affairs."

Wright left the Department of Justice two weeks ago while earning $12,000 a year. Lawrence hired him back at $16,000 annually with the stipulation the former Philadelphia assistant district attorney would assume additional investigative duties.

based upon a rate for each thousand dollars of proposed building and "permits which we issue for $25 are more than $100 elsewhere." Some councilmen said that the present building permit rate is "unfair" in that "the man building an $8,000 house pays the same amount, $25, as one building a $100,000 structure."

Keep Theater Tax

Adoption of the 16-mill levy included retention of the amusement tax. Theaters asked removal of the tax which last year brought $3,469.

Hartzell explained that the proposed budget is divided into $40,000 for highway, $50,000 for safety, $16,500 finance, $1,000 health, $12,000 utilities, $9,500 miscellaneous and $11,000 for recreation.

The amount for highways is the same as in 1958; the safety budget $3,500 less than last year; finance is $4,000 higher than a year ago; health is down $500. Hartzell said $1,000 is allotted for spray materials used in the mosquito eradication campaign.

of a great shrine for nearly a century and we have done a creditable job — one that has earned for Gettysburg the pride and the respect of the nation and people all over the world.

"What took place here and what Lincoln said here must be preserved and enhanced — not diminished. There are times when it is proper to 'back' the trend and Gettysburg, with thought and imagination, can personify the Civil War period as effectively as Williamsburg personifies the early Colonial period."

"Climaxing the centennial observance of the Battle of Gettysburg and Lincoln's Gettysburg Address with the dedication of the finest Lincoln Memorial in Lincoln Square will be hailed by all Americans and will seal forever the association of the town of Gettysburg with the martyred president. The re-establishment of the Lincoln route to the national cemetery, in connection with this dedication, is also a grave responsibility that goes along with our trusteeship."

The speaker deplored the criticisms being levied at Gettysburg but stated the determination of the future is the responsibility that is the price of Gettysburg's trusteeship of a hallowed area on which took place solemn events. "It serves no purpose to follow a trend, or what is thought to be a trend, if by so doing we diminish or destroy a priceless heritage. It is selling Gettysburg short to contend our future is restricted by our historic past," Scharf declared.

In conclusion Scharf urged wide participation in the February 12 tribute to Lincoln as the opening of the Lincoln Sesquicentennial year and re-emphasized that November 19 of each year is a day that is exclusively Gettysburg responsibility.

President Robert McCoy presided at the meeting. Kenneth Foust, operator of Kennie's Food Market, was enrolled as a member of the club.

GAS is FINE in The Furnace-not in Your Stomach

One Gettysburg lady said her stomach used to be like a "gas furnace" after meals. She got Sys-Tone and now says she enjoys every meal and feels like she never had stomach distress to her life.

SYSTONE is helping gas "victims" all over Gettysburg. This new medicine works WITH YOUR FOOD; expels gas quickly; contains iron to enrich pale, anemic blood; vitamin B-1 for nerves. Many gas-filled, rundown, nervous people soon feel like new. So get Sys-Tone—Peoples Drug Store. Also sold by all drug stores in Gettysburg and nearby towns.

held that "the new store fronts going up are doing more to destroy any quaintness about the town than new lights would."

Lane said: "Some are working toward restoration of a Civil War illusion in redoing the fronts of their buildings. We think it is merely a matter of calling attention to the desirability. And we plan to see builders and those planning to renovate to suggest it. You can't force anyone into avoiding the blatantly modern in redoing his store front, but I think mostly it is simply a case of the person not thinking of the effect on the overall future of the town. I think when it is explained and understood, many will go along with the idea."

To Try Gas Lights

Lane said several merchants are planning to install gas lights in front of their places of business and observed, "maybe we can wait a few months and see how it looks. It would cost the borough nothing, because the town already has its present lights and the gas lights would be installed by merchants themselves. The answer may be to keep our present system and add gas lights. Or it may be that some other system could provide both a quaint effect and the needed lighting."

Councilman C. Donald Rebert, noting the decline in property values in the center of town as compared with rapidly rising valuations elsewhere, which was also noted in the Travel Council statement, held that "tourist business is only good four months of the year. We need something to get business downtown 12 months a year. I think modern lighting may be able to do it, without destroying the Civil War times illusion. York is remodeling in colonial times style, but has modern lights."

William Lentz, manager for the Metropolitan Edison Co. here said: "I think we have some of the best lighting engineers in the business at Reading and we can get them here, and probably can come up with something that will serve both purposes — improved lighting and Civil War effect."

Suggests Two Systems

LeRoy E. Smith said: "A number of communities are turning to gas lighting to restore an old time, different effect that will attract the attention of the public. I think we ought to at least look into it."

Lee M. Hartman suggested installation of both a modern electric lighting system and a gas lighting system along the main streets "and then turn out the electric system for say an hour each evening, leaving only the gas burning. I believe hundreds of tourists would visit, and stay, just to see the effect of the old-fashioned lights."

Following the discussion on lighting, council turned to other matters including a discussion of enforcement of laws banning dogs running at large on the streets. Councilman Rebert held that the present ordinance, plus state laws, permitted the arrest of owners of dogs running loose. Burgess Wilbur L. Plank held the present ordinance did not and asked time to present an ordinance modeled on Carlisle's ordinance.

LAWLER GETS OK FOR NEW TERM IN JOB

By LEONARD A. UNGER
HARRISBURG (AP) — It was only two years ago that Joseph J. Lawler served as the butt of wholesale criticism from Republican lawmakers for his conduct as secretary of highways. But he found himself today approved for a full term as a $15,000-a-year member of the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission. And without a word of Republican criticism.

The Senate gave its surprise approval Monday night, almost immediately after Gov. Lawrence submitted his name in a follow-through on an interim appointment given Lawler in October 1957 by former Gov. George M. Leader.

"No Deal"

Sen. M. Harvey Taylor, Senate president pro tempore and powerful GOP leader, told a newsmen in answer to a question:

"There was no deal on this, nothing of the kind."

Taylor denied there was any connection between the action on Lawler and the fact that his brother, Michael F. Lawler, Lackawanna County Democratic leader, is a member of the General State Authority.

There have been persistent reports that Taylor is seeking re-election of Republican A. J. Caruso as GSA executive director in the face of Democratic control of the borrow-and-build agency.

Tempestuous Reign
Lawler's 2½-year reign as highways secretary was tempestuous enough to precipitate a demand by the Republican dominated House in 1957 for an investigation of the department. But the measure died in a Senate committee.

The Senate withheld approval of a similar interim turnpike appointment held by E. James Trimarchi, 37-year-old Indiana County Democratic chairman. Lawrence sent his name to the Senate in the same manner as that of Lawler.

"He isn't too well known," replied Taylor when asked about the delay in Trimarchi's case. "His name has to come up in caucus yet."

PCBL Appointment
Lawler and Trimarchi were given interim appointments at the same time to fill vacancies created by the death of David Watson, Philadelphia, and the resignation

BAD FIRE AT FORDHAM U.

NEW YORK (AP)—Material on government-subsidized research projects escaped damage in a half-million-dollar fire in a chemistry building at Fordham University.

Firemen fought the explosion-dotted blaze on the Bronx campus for an hour to bring it under control Monday. A student laboratory assistant was treated for smoke poisoning.

The salvaged material pertained to cancer research projects for the National Institute of Health and the Air Force and an undisclosed project for the Atomic Energy Commission.

of Merritt Williamson to return to Pennsylvania State University.

Lawler's term will expire in June 1967. Trimarchi's term, intended to run until June 1961, would expire at the end of the current session unless he is confirmed.

The governor also submitted to the Senate, Leader's interim appointment of Daniel B. Saney, Uniontown, to the State Liquor Control Board. No action was taken.

PANDEMONIUM REIGNS IN PA. SCHOOL BDS.

HARRISBURG (AP) — Pennsylvania's legislators seemed agreed on only one thing today about the closing of schools as fire hazards: It has created pandemonium in the districts affected.

That is the word used by Rep. Albert W. Johnson, House Republican floor leader, in describing the situation Monday night. He introduced a bill that would appropriate three million dollars to help districts make the changes needed to meet safety standards.

But Rep. Stephen McCann, Democratic floor leader, told newsmen later the bill was "just good newspaper publicity."

"Why not make the appropriation 30 million dollars?" McCann asked, adding that the amount Johnson suggested was less than what was needed.

Schedule Hearings
Meanwhile, the Labor and Industry Department's Industrial Board scheduled hearings today on more appeals against its shutdown orders from the school districts.

Sen. John T. Van Sant (R-Lehigh) told the Senate Monday night the department should temporarily suspend its campaign. He claimed the board lacks uniformity in its system of determining whether a school is a potential firetrap.

The department campaign swung into high gear after the fire in a Chicago school last December which took over 90 lives.

Some districts have complained that they have not been given sufficient time to correct cited conditions.

ATTACK OATH AS USELESS

HARRISBURG (AP) — Pennsylvania's eight-year-old loyalty oath law was under new attack today from a Democratic senator on grounds "it is worthless."

"The experience gained under the act shows it is of no use," declared Sen. Harry E. Seyler (D-York).

Seyler sponsored a new bill (S185) Monday to abolish the Loyalty Oath Act of 1951, aimed primarily at Communists. The measure was sent to the Judiciary General Committee.

"Only a half dozen or so people have failed to sign the loyalty oath to obtain or keep their jobs and that was because of religious scruples," said Seyler.

"But it is objectionable because it singles out public employees and school teachers," Seyler contended. "The penalty provisions have never been invoked."

"That means we either have no disloyal people, or else the bill has failed to find them, hence it is ineffective."

TO MEET PRESS

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. Lawrence today prepared to meet reporters in his first formal news conference since taking office Jan. 20.

John Frasca, the governor's press secretary, said the afternoon session would be the first of semi-weekly meetings—one for morning papers and the other for afternoon papers.

The next conference was scheduled for 9:30 a.m. Thursday.

3rd Of College's Students Failed

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Almost a third of the student body at Bellarmine College was flunked out or put on probation at the end of the last semester.

The school had an enrollment of 743 and 38 students were failed and 225 placed on probation.

The Rev. John T. Loftus, dean of the Catholic school, said the action was in line with Bellarmine's policy of making students live up to "academic excellence."

THE HAGUE (AP)—V. M. Molotov has gotten the cold shoulder from the Dutch.

An informant said the Hague government has told Moscow it has changed its mind about accepting Molotov as Soviet ambassador since he was criticized again at the recent Communist congress in Moscow.

TO PROBE PA. TRANSPORTING

HARRISBURG (AP) — A five-man committee today had a Senate mandate to study problems facing Pennsylvania's public transportation systems.

The group of senators was named Monday after unanimous Senate passage of a resolution calling for the special study to recommend possible remedial legislation.

"The economic problems of the public transportation companies in the Commonwealth have been increasing greatly in the past few years," the resolution declared.

It was sponsored by Sen. Charles R. Mallery (R-Blair), who was named to the special study group.

Mallery cited transit problems in Altoona and other parts of Blair

County to support his resolution. He said increasing cost pressures and public regulation plus declining patronage have forced many firms into serious financial situations.

Named to the investigation committee with Mallery were Sens. Ernest F. Walker (R-Cambria), George N. Wade (R-Cumberland), William V. Mullin (D-Phila.) and Thomas J. Kalman (D-Fayette).

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. Lawrence favors a special committee's proposal for decentralizing state public welfare activity, if it would produce better service and save tax dollars.

The recommendation was made by the committee which laid the groundwork for the merger last June 1 of the State Welfare and Public Assistance Departments into one agency—the Public Welfare Department.

said: "People get sick and they die. It's going to be pretty bad if a sick person has to be carried a block or two to an ambulance, or if an undertaker has to parade through a couple blocks with a corpse because he can't park double briefly."

Councilman C. Donald Robert said: "When the ordinance came up I understood that the enforcement of the double parking ban was not to begin until we had established unloading zones. We haven't established the unloading zones, but the burgess is going to start enforcing the double parking tomorrow."

Solicitor Eugene V. Bulleit explained: "I don't recall what agreement may have been in the mind of councilmen, but to straighten out the question of legality, the ordinance pertaining to double parking is one ordinance, pertaining only to that. The ordinance establishing the unloading zones is another one, pertaining only to those zones. There is no connection between the two in the wording in the ordinances."

"Off-Street Parking"
Councilman Glenn Guise declared: "It was my understanding that the enforcement was not to take place until we had provided off-street parking."

Guise added, "I was named chairman of a committee to round up people who would serve on a parking authority to set up off-street parking areas. So far I have asked 75 men to be members of that authority and I have received one acceptance."

Burgess Plank said: "I am sworn to uphold the law, and according to law I must do it until council changes the law. I waited six months for some action on off-street parking or unloading zones, but I cannot legally wait forever. Actually we are after the flagrant violator, the situation during peak traffic when two or three delivery trucks are parked in a block for a considerable length of time, causing all other traffic to run an obstacle course. I am of the opinion that the problem of how to make deliveries is not the problem of the borough, but the problem of the man making the deliveries."

Loud Protests
At that point six businessmen voiced protests. Oyler rapped for order and George Miller pleaded, "Let's not lose our tempers."

The burgess contended: "I still think that the only thing we can do is to enforce the law as it stands. If we hit one person for double parking, we have to arrest them all. It's the only fair and just way."

At council's request Plank agreed to postpone enforcement of the borough double parking ordinance for ten days.

Plank was told to have the police "crack down" on "flagrant violators."

During the ten-day period the safety and highway committees, the burgess, and representatives of the Retail Merchants Association are to "work out something that will meet objections and still solve the problem of double parking."

and Game Association, Inc., will be announced at the 8:30 p.m. meeting of the sportsmen on Wednesday in the clubhouse, near town. The February refreshment committee is composed of Edward H. Leister, Ivan E. Arendt and Robert Gladhill.

Crouse, Vice President and Mrs. William R. Keefe, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Foller Jr. More than 600 Jaycees and their wives were present.

Mrs. Donald L. tions and the board adopted these recommendations:

Teachers will be given a payment of $25 for each credit hour of college work, up to six hours per year, subject to prior board approval.

The maximum salary for teachers will be $200 per year above the state mandated schedule.

All certified teachers will be given $300 increments which amount includes the state-mandated increases.

A school year of 185 days is adopted.

Weather Interferes

The preliminary plan for the proposed addition of five new classrooms to the remodeling of the present high school in East Berlin in the conversion of the building for elementary use was presented by Joseph Stoner, building committee chairman, and got the board approval. Estimated cost is $200,000.

The board also discussed briefly progress on the plans for the new junior and senior high school, but discussion was limited as representatives of Buchart's had cancelled attendance at the meeting because of the hazardous driving conditions.

The weather delayed the arrival of the board president, Ralph W. Tyson, so Raymond Leer, vice president, conducted the early part of the meeting. Twenty-two of the 30 board members were in attendance.

Discuss Insurance
Albert Townsend, chairman of the insurance committee, reported that several agents who evidenced interest in the board's insurance business had been interviewed and that he expects proposals will be received from them shortly, after which the committee will take its recommendations to the board, possibly at its next meeting.

The board discussed the advisability of increasing the bonds of its clerical employees and of board members who handle school funds, then referred the matter to the insurance committee for further study and report.

Also up for discussion was the possibility of forming a merged school district, with the consensus of the board being that the matter should be explored further.

The board gave its permission for the York Springs senior class to make a trip April 2 to the Federal Reserve Bank, Philadelphia.

now principal at Meade School, be designated as head teacher for the new Eisenhower School next fall.

The same committee recommended the election of Donald Kendall, Waynesboro, as a grade school teacher here to fill the vacancy caused by the recent resignation of Mrs. Elsie Wolf, a Sixth grade teacher. Kendall was graduated from the Shippensburg State Teachers' College in January. The recommended salary is $3,600, which was the starting pay for teachers who started here last fall.

Mr. Riegle also reported that the teacher committee has approved participation by Gettysburg teachers in a York County teacher workshop next October 22 and 23 in York in place of the regular local fall workshop.

Need Resolution

Directors were given an invitation to attend a dinner meeting of the South Penn Study Council in Carlisle April 21.

Another section of the Riegle report indicated that current studies forecast extension of the current development reading program into all grades of the high school.

The superintendent also told the board that the Gettysburg Joint District has received a number from the Department of Public Instruction on a proposed new building project but that board action must be taken to "get the application moving." It will be necessary for the board to pass a resolution agreeing to go ahead with the project without state reimbursement. Such action would not commit the district to a new building, Riegle said. He estimated that the Eisenhower School may become eligible for reimbursement for rental by next year.

Get Health Report

The board was advised that the Gettysburg School Authority will open bids for furniture and equipment for the Eisenhower School on March 9 at 9 p.m. at the board meeting.

Copies of the monthly health report for the schools were distributed to the directors showing 163 pupils received physical examinations and 151 dental checkups in January.

A report on vision and hearing tests given 1,128 pupils in the high school showed 18 with a hearing loss, 46 who failed the vision screening test, 23 who should have glasses re-checked and 319 as the number who now have glasses with 20/20 correction. Parents of pupils who failed the vision test have been notified, the nurses' report showed.

Bills totaling $11,675 were listed for payment but could not be approved for lack of a quorum.

Dr. R. D. Wickerham presided at the meeting.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of nylon tulle with a full satin underskirt, an illusion neckline with fitted bodice and long pointed sleeves of Chantilly lace. Her fingertip veil was a crown of pearls and matching Chantilly lace. She carried a bouquet of a large white orchid with a pale yellow center, surrounded by white carnations and baby's breath with flowered streamers.

Mrs. Richard Feeser, sister of the groom, was the matron of honor. She was attired in a fuchsia waltz length gown of nylon tulle and net with matching stole. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow carnations, with matching streamers.

The bride's mother wore a charcoal wool dress with matching accessories and a red rosebud corsage. The groom's mother wore a navy blue dress with matching accessories and a red rosebud corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the Lutheran parish hall, after which the couple left on a wedding trip of unannounced destination. Upon their return the couple will reside at 166 York St., Gettysburg.

THIEF SEIZES $400,000 LOOT IN DIAMONDS

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—A thief, perhaps a gem expert, stole a reported $400,000 in diamonds, emeralds and other jewelry from the hotel suite of a vacationing New York auto rental magnate.

The theft Sunday was the biggest in the history of Miami Beach luxury hotels.

The jewelry was owned by Leon C. Greenebaum, chairman of the board of Hertz Car Rental Corp., his wife, and her sister, Mrs. Arthur Cole, also of New York.

Greenebaum told newsmen someone either overlooked or chose not to take some of the gems.

Mrs. Cole interrupted the interview with "I do not want any of this in the newspapers." She and her husband operate Mr. Mori, one of New York City's leading dress houses.

$180,000 Ring

Because some of the jewelry was not taken, officers theorized the thief was a professional, knew how to appraise gems and knew what he was after.

The largest piece was a $180,000 ring. The other pieces were mostly diamond and emerald bracelets and necklaces. The jewels were insured.

Mrs. Greenebaum and Mrs. Cole wore the jewelry on an outing Saturday night.

The three spent part of Sunday away from their $100 a day suite in the Americana Hotel. Upon return at 4:30 p.m. to pack for a trip to New York, they found the jewelry missing.

SHOT TO DEATH GOING TO WORK

ANDERSON, Ind. (AP)—An Anderson woman was shot to death on her way to work Monday morning, an evangelist riding with her was wounded, and her husband was found dead later, an apparent suicide.

Police identified the dead as Eva Mae Stigall, 42, and her estranged husband, Sam.

Patrolman Doyle Wright said James Moyer, an evangelist and father of four children, apparently was an innocent passenger in Mrs. Stigall's car.

Moyer called for an ambulance and drove Mrs. Stigall's car to police headquarters after the shooting. He had been shot in the left ear. He was admitted later to a hospital.

Stigall was found in his own car in an alley half a mile away, dead from an apparently self-inflicted wound. A rifle was found beside him.

On Wedding Trip After Odd Wedding

PASADENA Calif. (AP)—Honeymooning today were a blonde divorcee and a wealthy industrialist who had obtained a court order barring his mother from the wedding.

Mrs. Tessie Purmort was not among the 30 guests who watched her son, Louis, and Mrs. Barbara Jean Thorndike exchange vows in a quiet religious ceremony Saturday night.

Purmort, 34, obtained a court order last week barring his mother from the ceremony. Purmort said his mother threatened to kill him if he married the attractive 26-year-old mother of two.

Mrs. Purmort denied this and added that she never expects to see her son again.

Exact operational ability is classified but Mace, like Matador, is a surface-to-surface missile with a range of more than 650 miles and a speed in the neighborhood of 650 m.p.h.

WITCH HUNT TO BE AVOIDED IN MINE HUNT

HARRISBURG (AP)—A newly appointed legislative committee was urged by one of its members today to steer clear of witch hunt tactics in probing a Luzerne County mine tragedy.

"I certainly don't want a witch hunt made of this thing," said Sen. Martin L. Murray (D-Luzerne). "I want to have a study to get to the bottom of this terrible disaster and let the chips fall where they may."

Murray is a member of a legislative committee of five Democrats and five Republicans named Monday to make an inquiry into the flooding of the Port Griffith mine of the Knox Coal Co. Twelve miners have been trapped since Jan. 22 and are presumed dead.

"The safety of thousands of miners still working in the area might well depend on how fast and well we do our job," Murray told The Associated Press.

Other Developments
The committee is expected to organize before the end of the week and carry its investigation directly to the scene in the Pittston area. The committee is empowered to employ technical personnel, including mining engineers to assist in the probe.

Other legislative developments: Turnpike Commission—The Senate, in a surprise action Monday night, approved the appointment of Joseph J. Lawler, Jessup, to the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission.

But it held up action on the interim appointment of E. James Trimarchi, Indiana County Democratic chairman, to the Turnpike Commission.

Urges Suspension
Transportation Probe—The Senate approved an investigation of public transportation problems in Pennsylvania with a view of drafting remedial laws.

A resolution adopted by the Senate said many bus and trolley firms are being forced into serious financial straits by a drop in patronage.

School Fire Hazards—Sen. John T. Van Sant (R-Lehigh) urged the Labor and Industry Department to suspend temporarily its orders closing schools with fire hazards. In the House, Rep. Albert W.

Guard Posted For Honeymoon Party

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Industrialist Louis E. Purmort, who got a court order preventing his mother from attending his wedding to a divorcee, is on his way to Honolulu on his honeymoon today.

Purmort, 34, and his bride, the former Barbara Jean Thorndike, 26, held a party aboard ship, with a guard posted outside their state-room.

The Purmorts were married Saturday in Pasadena. In gaining a court order to bar his mother from both the wedding and reception, Purmort alleged that she threatened to kill him if he went through with the marriage. The mother, Mrs. Tessie Purmort, denied the charge.

Lock Ohio Jail To Keep People Out

GRANVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Granville's jail is locked up tight — to keep people out.

Mayor Edison Rupp booted eight transients out of the seldom used jail Monday after they had become rowdy in a local restaurant.

Legally, the jail cannot be used for prisoners. State law requires a jailer when a jail is in use and Granville has no such person.

Vagrants and transients had been using the two-cell jail. Police here use the county jail in nearby Newark.

Johnson, Republican floor leader, sponsored a three million dollar appropriation bill to assist school districts in overcoming school fire hazards.

Bank Measure
Lawrence Program—The House received Gov. Lawrence's proposed legislative program featuring a plan to give banks additional powers in making special loans to industrial development agencies.

Other sections of it would prohibit discrimination in housing and would provide for a statewide system of smoke control.

Sen. James S. Berger, Republican floor leader, estimated that the Pittston mine probe would cost well over $100,000, most of which would be spent on technical advisers.

Resolution directed the committee to determine the cause of the disaster and pay attention to the possibility of laxity among state officials.

NEW CONTRACT FOR PHONE CO.

ERIE, Pa. (AP)—Some 1,275 employees of the General Telephone Co., went to work today under a new contract negotiated by the company and the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers.

Union members in Erie ratified the new agreement Monday. Employees from Johnstown, Oil City, Sayre and Vandergrift ratified the contract by secret ballot over the weekend.

Leroy Doehrel, secretary - treasurer of the joint union negotiating committee, said the new 17-month contract called for wage increases of 2 1/2 to 7 1/2 cents an hour immediately and another 2 1/2 cents per hour for top craft workers effective June 28th. The contract also provides for a wage - reopener after nine months and four-week vacations after 30 years service.

Wage scales for the contract which expired in December were not revealed. The workers remained on the job during negotiations.

Says Hypnosis Can Be Lie Detector

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Harry Arons of Newark, N.J., who teaches hypnosis, says the technique can be used as a lie detector.

Arons, who just completed a course in hypnosis for doctors, dentists and psychologists at Southern Methodist University here, said the procedure is this: A suspect is hypnotized and a posthypnotic suggestion is placed in his mind.

Then, after he wakes up, he will react with a specific mannerism every time he tells a lie. His eye will twitch, he will pull an ear or rub his head, for instance.

Power Survivors Get Some Money

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Tyrone Power's widow and his three children will get $2,500 a month living expenses from the actor's estate.

Superior Judge Burdette J. Daniels, setting the allowance Monday, advised survivors to tighten their belts "until we find the condition of this estate."

He ordered $1,500 a month for Power's widow and third wife Deborah, 27, and their newborn son. The actor's second wife Linda Christian, 31, will get $1,000 a month for their daughters Romina, 7, and Taryn, 5.

Power's estate is estimated at about $300,000. He also left $370,000 in life insurance.
